

Ian McCormack

CMC, BA

Providing guidance, advice, capacity and independence to organizations in local government, post secondary, and social service sectors.

Ian shares his passion for great governance by bridging the gap between elected officials and senior management as a nationally accredited Certified Management Consultant, a Certified Change Management Practitioner, and the President of Strategic Steps Inc.

In 2020 Ian released his first book, Who's Driving the Grader, based on real-world experiences and filled with "Ianisims" on how we go from good to great governance while keeping the best interests of the community at the heart of all decisions.
